Re: Samuel Reider v. Fingerhut, LLC, *et al
Case No. 14-cv-01836-WFK-RER

Dear Judge Reyes:

I am lead counsel for Equifax Information Services LLC ("Equifax") in the above-referenced matter, and am in the process of filing my pro hac vice in the Eastern District of New York for this matter. We respectfully request leave of Court to participate by telephone in the Initial Pretrial Conference [Doc. No. 10], currently scheduled for Wednesday, May 21, 2014, at 10:00 a.m.

Good cause exists to grant Equifax leave to appear by telephone as lead counsel will be required to travel from Atlanta, Georgia to New York and thus, Equifax will incur significant travel costs and attorneys' fees if lead counsel is required to participate in person at the Initial Pretrial Conference.

We have addressed this issue with all counsel of record and they have no objection. My pro hac vice petition is being filed concurrently with this request for telephonic attendance.

Please call me at (404) 215-5806 if you have questions. I am,

Respectfully yours,

Brian J. Olson
